

The school of visual storytelling

The Media Innovation Fund (MIF) implements the project “The school of visual storytelling”. The aim of this project is to promote visual storytelling tools among civic activists, who will master the basic skills of creating comic books and animations. The beneficiaries from Batumi, Akhaltsikhe and Marneuli will have the opportunity to create a comic book reflecting the social problems in their communities.